SAVE THE DATE: Faith Climate Action Day 2025

Join us for our annual march to the Vermont statehouse on February 19th!

Faith Climate Action Day is a time for us to come together in joyful community, as we bring our collective, moral voice to urgent environmental issues. We'll march, sing, and speak to our legislators as we work together toward a just and sustainable Vermont! FCAD is part of our continuing effort to bring the voices of faith communities to the public discourse around the need for action to address the climate crisis.
